It's posted on my personal very hand made basic website, it's not a trap for anything more than your consciences, and just might save your eternal soul.

Ladies and Gentlemen, please bring your better selves to work in the New Year, and please do better than in 2023. I believe you can do better.

Please try to engage your consciences and give them a work-out by learning the lessons from the old classic A Christmas Carol, by Charles Dickens. Then please all of you, will you try to be the best version of yourself you can be in 2024.

Thanks for the privilege of your attention.

Sincerely

Mark Taylor
